DINNER &
CELEBRATION

The Adam Smith Center for Economic Freedom Champion of Freedom Dinner & Celebration is a prestigious event that brings together current and former heads of state, national and international senior government officials, business trailblazers, celebrities, and other influential leaders. This occasion celebrates the enduring principles of liberty while honoring those who have made significant contributions to advancing economic and individual freedom.

The Adam Smith Center for Economic Freedom is a world-class, independent, non-partisan think tank that aims to inform, influence, and inspire current and future leaders to develop and implement innovative, meaningful, and effective policies to advance economic freedom and human prosperity.

Your contribution may be considered tax-deductible, where allowed, to the fullest extent under the law as allowed by IRS regulations. Any and all net proceeds from this event, after payment of associated expenses, may be used to support the Adam Smith Center for Economic Freedom Fund through the FIU Foundation, Inc. The amount of your contribution that is deductible is limited to the excess of your contribution over the value of the goods and services provided to you. In accordance with Foundation policy, the Foundation may assess a one-time Advancement Initiative fee in the amount of 3% of the Gift ("Initiative") to support the University's general fundraising and capital campaign expenditures. The Initiative will be collected with the first installment of the Gift (and any subsequent installment, if necessary) in order to fulfill the Initiative as soon as practicable.
